OPERATION: MILITARY OVERSEAS MORALE

The Legionnaires of Post 39, have launched this program to help bolster the morale of those active duty military serving in far-away places.

We're sending packages of comfort food, and items to five of those outposts right now. We want them to know, they are not forgotten by those of us at home.

Please join with us in this effort.

A listing of items they love to receive from "MOM", as it were:
