As hard as it is to believe, tonight marks the end of the first quarter of the year and by golly, do you know how to end the quarter in style.

When the national membership report came out this week the Department of Virginia was in 16th place out of 55 – up from 30th place just one week ago! And we were one of just 19 Departments to have met already achieved the 55% target for October 14th.Moreover, we are making our National Vice Commander Mike Mitrione look good as we stand third in the Southeast Region behind Louisiana and Mississippi both of whom have significantly smaller memberships than Virginia in terms of percentage of our national goal and lag behind Florida and Texas, both of which are significantly bigger than Virginia, in , total membership.

Overall, nine (9) Districts have surpassed the 60% mark and all but one District has reached the 55% target for October 6th. (And I am confident that the 7th District will get there. With a week to go they are ONE membership shy of reaching the 55% goal. ONE!!!)

It is a great way to end the first quarter and a great reminder of the successes we are having this year! Keep it up!

Scott Maddrea
Department Membership Chairman

REMINDER: The Fall Conference is coming up in three weeks (October 21-24th) in Williamsburg and we hope to be able to recognize our Cardinal (August), Jefferson (September) and Jamestown (October) award recipients as well as those District Commanders who had no zero membership Posts within their Districts as of September 29th.
