American Legion Post 290 Stafford Virginia Junior Shooting Team

47th Annual Old Dominion Junior Rifle League Program

Satellite Range
10 Meter Air Rifle Monthly Matches
2025 - 2026 Updated (V1)

The Old Dominion Junior Rifle League (ODJRL) is a series of six-monthly matches for Junior Rifle Clubs, Junior Divisions of Senior Clubs, and High School Rifle Teams. These clubs typically are sponsored by schools, American Legion Posts, 4H, or Individual Clubs.

Competition is open to any individuals meeting the requirements of CMP rules, as well as league member organizations. The League's objectives are to promote Junior Shooting Sports Programs and provide a sound competitive program for junior marksmen (generally ages 12-18). These matches are designed to encourage wholesome competition at all skill levels.

POSTALS "Postals" or registering a team/ entering a match event and firing the match at your home location; either by drawing the labeled targets and returning them once they are fired on, or scan them into an Orion scanner at your range location, or creating your own label under our match and processing the fired target in the Orion system.

The use of "Postals" is limited to two (2) times per season as shoulder-to-shoulder matches are the goal of this competition series. The Post 290 Team Match Coordinator may allow more than two "Postals" if Virginia restricts gatherings, as occurred in the 2020-21 season.

AWARDS As a satellite range firing the Old Dominion Jr Rifle Match, the match headquarters manages shooters' classifications and awards. The ODJRL has eight classes for individual competition based on current proficiency.

Initial ODJRL Classification

ODJRL CLASS	NRA CLASS (1)	THREE POSITION AIR RIFLE (2)	INTERNATIONAL AIR RIFLE (3) 40/60 shots

AAM	Master	285	380/570
AAE	Expert	265	360/540
AAT	Sharpshooter	245	340/510
A	Sharpshooter	225	320/480
B	Marksman	205	300/450
C	Marksman	185	280/420
Tyro	None (4)	165	260/390
Tyro B	None (4)	< 165	< 260/390

Note: 1) Shooters without a league classification in a specific event will be classified for the first event match in accordance with the score fired. Shooters with an NRA/CMP Position Air Rifle may elect, prior to firing, to enter the class equivalent to the NRA/CMP Classification.

Note: 2) Scores shown are for scores fired on the Orion target or equivalent. Scores are based on ten shots in each position (K, P and S).

K = Kneeling
P = Prone
S = Standing

Note: 3) Scores listed are for both sporter and precision air rifle courses of fire.

Note: 4) To be eligible for entry into Tyro or Tyro B class in a given event, a competitor must not have fired in that league event previously. Competitors in the TYRO B classification who fire three or more matches in a given event may not compete in a second season in TYRO B. At the start of the second season, TYRO B classifications will be reclassified o TYRO.
